HEADLINE: Cold December fuels better than average increase in Industrial Production.

The Markets

Stocks ended mixed on Wednesday as selling pressures in companies that had reported earnings, kept a lid on upward momentum. Seasonally, stocks remain volatile at this time of year when values gyrate in response to earnings reports, and the profit-taking in a number of prominent companies that have reported in just the past few days is indicative of this. Earnings season and the pending inauguration of a new president in the USA should provide a number of catalysts for the market to break out of the recent short-term consolidation range. <... MORE: click link below ...>
