Stock Market Outlook for Friday, January 20, 2017

HEADLINE: Economic bellwether ahead: General Electric reports earnings on Friday.

The Markets

... It is typically by this point in the earnings season that investors have a reasonable understanding of the strength of financial reports for the quarter that has passed, along with an expectation of what is to come, thereby leading to a move in the broad equity market, one way or the other. Currently, the S&P 500 Index remains pinned between horizontal resistance at 2275 and variable support at its 20-day moving average, waiting for a catalyst to break, one way or the other. <... MORE: click link below ...>
