Stock Market Outlook for Friday, March 3, 2017

HEADLINE: Natural Gas inventories show first ever recorded increase during meteorological winter.

The Markets

Stocks pulled back on Thursday, retracing some of the gains achieved in the previous session. The S&P 500 Index shed around six-tenths of one percent, pulling back from resistance at 2400. Investors reverted back to defensive plays on the equity market, including consumer staples and utilities, which closed flat to higher on the session. A trend towards risk aversion remains apparent, which is a risk to the momentum of the broader market. <... MORE: click link below ...>
