Stock Market Outlook for Friday, March 31, 2017

HEADLINE: Financials jumping as the debate over yields continues.

The Markets

Stocks in the USA closed higher on Thursday as bank stocks surged in what could be argued as a bout of window-dressing into the end of the quarter. The KBW bank index jumped 1.78%, moving back in on the recently broken rising trend channel. Variable resistance is presented by the 50-day moving average, now at 94.10, which is showing early signs of rolling over for the first time since last August. Debate over the direction of rates continues as the yield on the 10 and 30 year treasury bonds continue to hold within a flat range. <... MORE: click link below ...>
