Stock Market Outlook for Monday, April 24, 2017

HEADLINE: Existing home sales show largest March increase on record as the spring selling season begins.

The Markets

Stocks closed lower on Friday, led by health care and financials, as investors monitor pending legislation pertaining to health care and tax reform. The S&P 500 Index shed three-tenths of a percent, pulling back from its 50-day moving average. Looking at the weekly chart, the almost one percent gain in the large-cap benchmark on the week shows a rebound from the rising 20-week moving average, a level that has supported the intermediate trend in the past. <... MORE: click link below ...>
