Stock Market Outlook for Wednesday, May 31, 2017

HEADLINE: S&P 500 Technology Sector Index now less than 20 points away from surpassing the tech bubble peak.

The Markets

Stocks closed below the flat-line on Wednesday as investors digested the Trump administration's plan to reform taxes. The S&P 500 Index ended in the red by a mere five basis points after flirting with resistance around 2400 at the highs of the session. Consumer stocks bookended the winners and losers on the day as a disappointing earnings report from Procter & Gamble weighed on the staples and retailers helped to support the discretionary sector in a bet that consumer spending will benefit from the proposed tax plan. <... MORE: click link below ...>
