Stock Market Outlook for Wednesday, August 9, 2017

HEADLINE: Job openings record largest June increase on record while hires struggle.

The Markets

Stocks closed lower on Tuesday as investors showed caution amidst escalating tensions between North Korea and the USA. The S&P 500 Index shed almost a quarter of one percent, giving back the gains accumulated earlier in the session. The large-cap benchmark tested short-term support at its rising 20-day moving average at the lows of the session as momentum indicators continue to roll over, negatively diverging from price. Waning buying pressures remain apparent with few catalysts to fuel another round of buying. <... MORE: click link below ...>
