The Markets

Stocks ended close to the flat-line on Monday as investors analyzed the potential impact of Hurricane Harvey. The S&P 500 Index added just over one point, remaining bound by short-term declining trend channel resistance, the lower limit of which presently hovers around 2400. News after the closing bell that North Korea fired a missile over Japan could see the benchmark test that lower limit in the coming days. The hurricane had a direct impact on ... **<...
