Stock Market Outlook for Thursday, September 28, 2017

HEADLINE: Financials break out as bond prices break down.

The Markets

Stocks charted a fresh set of all-time highs on Wednesday as the financial sector fuelled a rally on Wall Street. The S&P 500 Financial Sector Index closed above the trading range that has been intact since December, reacting to the jump in yields as investors digested the Trump tax plan. The move above the approximately 40-point span projects upside potential on the financial benchmark to around 460, or over 7% above present levels. The sector has seen renewed strength following a test of long-term support presented by the rising 200-day moving average, ... <... MORE: click link below ...>
