Stock Market Outlook for Wednesday, June 13, 2018

HEADLINE: Whichever way the data is sliced, inflation is firmly embedded in the economy.

The Markets

U.S. stocks closed marginally higher on Tuesday as investors await the outcome of the two-day FOMC meeting. The S&P 500 Index added just less than 0.2%, closing below the high set in the previous session around 2790. Short-term resistance is becoming confirmed. The large-cap benchmark has held firmly above short-term support at the 20-hour moving average through the past couple of weeks, but this variable level of support is now showing some cracks. Momentum indicators on the hourly look are rolling over, hinting of buying exhaustion, just as ... <... MORE: click link below ...>
