Stock Market Outlook for Monday, July 9, 2018

HEADLINE: Employment in Canada shows the weakest increase through the first half of the year since 2009.

The Markets

... With better-than-expected employment reports, stocks on both sides of the border climbed on Friday. The S&P 500 Index added almost 0.9%, moving above short-term resistance at 2743. Another point of short-term resistance at 2764 was tested around the highs of the session. The breakout from the approximately 43-point short-term trading range has upside implications back towards the June high around 2790. Unfortunately, with volume very light in this holiday shortened week, it is difficult to suggest conviction behind the move higher. ... <... MORE: click link below ...>
