Stock Market Outlook for Friday, November 30, 2018

HEADLINE: Are jobless claims providing another leading indication of a slowing economy?

The Markets

Stocks closed just below the flat-line on Thursday as investors position ahead of month-end and the catalyst presented over the weekend by way of the G20 meeting. The S&P 500 Index shed 0.2%, trading between its 20- and 200-day moving averages, essentially marking the battleground for the pivotal event ahead. Technology once again took the role of the laggard on the day as investors express their skepticism that trade tensions will be alleviated with the ... <... MORE: click link below ...>
