HEADLINE: Historic put-call ratio as the market floods the bear camp.

The Markets

And the pain in equity markets continues. The S&P 500 Index shed another 1.58% on Thursday to chart a fresh low for the year. This comes the session following comments from Fed Chair Jerome Powell, who failed to soothe investors nerves on Wednesday as the Fed announced another quarter point increase to the Fed Funds Rate. At the lows of the session, the large-cap benchmark was down a whopping 17% from its high charted almost three months ago to the day. Momentum indicators are increasingly moving into oversold territory as investors continue to ... <... MORE: click link below ...>
