HEADLINE: Gauge of shipping activity shows that volumes are waning, while expenditures remain strong.

The Markets

Stocks surged on Thursday as investors reacted to headlines that the USA might relax tariffs against China as the two countries negotiate a trade deal. The S&P 500 Index added around 0.75%, advancing beyond the widely-scrutinized level of resistance at 2630. We have been reporting in recent days that the level of resistance would likely not play out according to the consensus given the expectations that prevailed for a rejection and rollover around this hurdle. ... <... MORE: click link below ...>
