

Doc Gumshoe Article On Cancer

eResearch Corporation is pleased to provide a link, on the next page, to the latest blog on the Stock Gumshoe website that incorporates an article on cancer developments, including cancer drugs introduced in 2018.

WHAT IS STOCK GUMSHOE

Stock Gumshoe is an investor blog, founded and operated by Travis Johnson (bio at the end of this article), that examines, analyzes, and dissects hype-filled teaser ads in third party newsletters, and then throws all of the clues into the “Thinkolator” to reach an “informed” opinion as to what is the touted mystery company that was hyped, but not disclosed, in the teaser ad.

TEASER ADS

Investment newsletters, or tip-sheets, often use considerable hype, which usually includes a promise to reveal a great investment, in order to get investors to subscribe (for a fee). The name of the company is not disclosed until the investor becomes a paid subscriber to the newsletter.

STOCK GUMSHOE MEMBERSHIP

You can become a Stock Gumshoe blog member, for FREE, although there is also a more informative PAY-FOR option (see below), so that you can benefit from the analytical sleuthing performed by Mr. Johnson on these teaser ads.

Free membership in Stock Gumshoe gives you an automatic subscription to the free Daily Update email newsletter, so that you will be amongst the first to learn about every teaser solution that Stock Gumshoe publishes.

You will also get a “login” that you can use to comment on articles or discussion topics, with the ability to submit reviews of investment newsletters for the edification of your fellow investors.

If you would like to see everything on the website, or start your own discussion topics, you can join the Stock Gumshoe Irregulars, our premium membership).

DAILY UPDATE January 31, 2019

Dear Reader,

Time once again for a visit from our friend Doc Gumshoe – what is on his mind today is cancer, and he has got an update on how much cancer survival rates have improved (and why)... along with a look at some of the more interesting drug approvals that made it through the FDA in 2018. I always learn something from Michael's articles, maybe you will, too... just click below...

Here is the latest article from Doc Gumshoe, for January 31: Click HERE

eResearch was established in 2000 as Canada's first equity issuer-sponsored research organization. As a primary source for professional investment research, our Subscribers (subscription is free!!!) benefit by having written research on a variety of under-covered companies. We also provide unsponsored corporate research and complement this with a diversified selection of informative, insightful, and thought-provoking research publications from a wide variety of investment professionals.
