Stock Market Outlook for Monday, April 1, 2019

HEADLINE: S&P 500 Index has gained 1.3%, on average, in April with 70% of periods showing positive results.

The Markets

Stocks closed higher on Friday as investors monitored news pertaining to Brexit, as well as the trade negotiations between the USA and China. The S&P 500 Index added 0.67%, bouncing from its rising 20-day moving average. Stocks have consolidated in the past couple of weeks as investors rotated portfolios ahead of the close of the quarter. This has resulted in a rather muted 1.79% return for the large-cap benchmark over the past month, at least compared to prior months. The result is marginally better than the 1.2% gain that is average for the month of March, a month that tends to be dominated by gains in ... <... MORE: click link below ...>
